

Terms and Conditions for the Use of the Technical Report on Travel Characteristics Survey 2011

The user of the technical report on Travel Characteristics Survey 2011 (hereafter referred to as “the report”) agrees to abide by the following terms and conditions for the use of the report:

1. The user shall use the report solely for the purpose as specified in his request. The report shall not be used for any other purposes without prior consent from the Chief Engineer/Transport Planning of Transport Department.
2. The report shall be used only for providing reference information on the travel characteristics of the people in Hong Kong on a normal weekday in 2011.
3. The report contains information collected in 2011 and the travel characteristics of the people in Hong Kong will inevitably change as a result of land use developments, implementation of transport infrastructure projects, and other socio-economic changes taken place since 2011. The user shall exercise care and caution when interpreting information in the report.
4. When using and interpreting information in the report, the user shall give due consideration to the sampling framework and data expansion methodology adopted for producing the information in the report because such framework and methodology may impose limitations on the collected information.
5. The user is reminded that the database should be used for comprehensive statistical analysis only and the info in the database should be interpreted on an aggregated basis.
6. The Transport Planning Division of Transport Department gives no warranty that the report is error-free and the Government shall in no way be held responsible for any loss or damage which may be suffered by the user or any other person as a result of using the report.
