

Code on Access to Information (Extracts)

Information which may be refused

2.1 A department may refuse to disclose information, or may refuse to confirm or deny the existence of information, in the categories and for the reasons set out below, which will normally be referred to if a request is refused.

Management and operation of the public service

2.9 d. Information which could only be made available by unreasonable diversion of a department's resources.